André Rieu -New York City: Don't cry for me Argentina:
<http://video.google.it/videosearch?q=andre+rieu+cry+for+me+argentina&emb=0#>

Lyrics:

It won't be easy, you'll think it strange
When I try to explain how I feel
That I still need your love after all that I've done
You won't believe me
All you will see is a girl you once knew
Although she's dressed up to the nines
At sixes and sevens with you

I had to let it happen, I had to change
Couldn't stay all my life down at heel
Looking out of the window, staying out of the sun
So I chose freedom
Running around, trying everything new
But nothing impressed me at all
I never expected it to

Don't cry for me Argentina
The truth is I never left you
All through my wild days
My mad existence
I kept my promise
Don't keep your distance

And as for fortune, and as for fame
I never invited them in Though it seems to the world they were all I desired
They are illusions
They're not the solutions they promised to be
The answer was here all the time
I love you and hope you love me

Don't cry for me Argentina

Don't cry for me Argentina
The truth is I never left you
All through my wild days
My mad existence
I kept my promise
Don't keep your distance

Have I said too much?
There's nothing more I can think of to say to you
But all you have to do is look at me
To know that every word is true

Don't cry for me Argentina

Paper roses by Amarillo:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pKeMq3pOqGg&feature=related>

I realized the way your eyes deceived me with tender looks that I mistook for love
So take away the flowers that you gave me
And send the kind that you remind me of
Paper Roses
Paper Roses
Oh how real those roses seem to be
But they're only imitation,
Like you imitation love for me
I thought that you would be a perfect lover
You seemed so full of sweetness at the start
But like a big red rose that's made of paper
There isn't any sweetness in your heart
Paper Roses
Paper Roses
Oh how real those roses seem to be
But they're only imitation like you imitation love for me

Lyrics:

Blue Spanish Eyes

Teardrops are falling from your Spanish eyes

Please please don't cry

This is just adios and not good-bye

Soon I'll return

Bringing you all the love your heart can hold

Please say si si

Say you and your Spanish eyes will wait for me

Blue Spanish eyes

Prettiest eyes in all of Mexico

Blue Spanish eyes

Please smile for me once more before I go

Soon I'll return

Bringing you all the love your heart can hold

Please say si si

Say you and your Spanish eyes will wait for me

"Where can I go?"

An Yiddish song (half in Yiddish half in English)

Tell me where can I go

There's no place I can see

Where to go where to go

Every door is closed for me

To the left to the right

It's the same in every light

There is nowhere to go

And it's me who should know
Won't you please understand
Now I know where to go
Where my folks proudly stay
Let me go let me go
To that precious Promised Land
No more left no more right
Lift your head and see the light
I am proud can't you see
For at last I am free
No more wandering for me

"Kathleen Mavourneen" (1837)

Words Mrs. Marion Crawford

Music by Frederick Nicholls Crouch, 1808-1896

1.

Kathleen mavourneen! the gray dawn is breaking,
The horn of the hunter is heard on the hill,
The lark from her light wing the bright dew is shaking,
Kathleen mavourneen, what slumbering still?

[CHORUS]

Oh! hast thou forgotten how soon we must sever?
Oh! hast thou forgotten this day we must part,
It may be for years, and it may be forever,
Oh! why art thou silent thou voice of my heart?
It may be for years, and it may be forever,
Then why art thou silent Kathleen mavourneen?

2.

Kathleen mavourneen, awake from thy slumbers,
The blue mountains glow in the sun's golden light,
Ah! where is the spell that once hung on thy numbers,
Arise in thy beauty, Thou star of my night,
Arise in thy beauty, Thou star of my night.

[CHORUS]

Mavourneen, mavourneen, my sad tears are falling,
To think that from Erin and thee I must part,
It may be for years, and it may be forever,
Then why art thou silent, thou voice of my heart?
It may be for years, and it may be forever,
Then why art thou silent, thou voice of my heart?

 What is CLIL?

CLIL stands for Content and Language Integrated Learning. In CLIL, teachers and learners of content subjects (e.g. geography, history, art and design) use a foreign or second language as the medium of communication and instruction. CLIL is widely seen as an excellent means of learning a language, and of introducing international aspects into the teaching of content subjects.

In the Netherlands CLIL is also known as TTO: Twee Talig Onderwijs. At present there are over 25 TTO secondary schools in the Netherlands and the number is growing steadily. More and more parents want their children to learn secondary school subjects in another language. In the Dutch setting this is normally English.

CLIL is also used in higher education, especially in business studies programmes with a strong international element. The University of Utrecht (IVLOS) has recently started an English-medium one-year postgraduate teacher-training programme in English (grade one), using CLIL. The Amsterdam Faculty of Education is now introducing English-medium elements in its four-year teacher training programmes (grade two).

The European Union aims has as an aim that its citizens know three of the community languages and supports CLIL as one of the ways of reaching this goal. In the Netherlands, the European Platform (www.europeesplatform.nl) has a coordinating role for CLIL and TTO.

- I George Washington do solemnly swear

- That I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States

- ... faithfully execute the office of President of the United states

- And will to the best of my ability

- ... to the best of my ability

- Preserve, protect and defend

- Preserve protect and defend
- The Constitution of the United States
- ... Constitution of the United States, so help me God
- It is done, God bless George Washington, President of the United States
- Fine, fine

(Wikipedia)The president's term of office begins at noon on January 20 of the year following the election. This date, known as Inauguration Day, marks the beginning of the president's and vice president's four-year terms. Before assuming office, the president-elect is constitutionally required to take the presidential oath:

“ I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States.^[7]

Although it is not required, presidents have traditionally used a Bible to take oath of office ... George Washington began this practice, borrowing a Bible from St. John's Lodge No. 1.

Although no law requires that the oath of office be administered by someone, new presidents are traditionally sworn-in by the Chief Justice of the United States.

Washington was sworn-in by Chancellor of New York Robert Livingston, there being no federal judges before Washington took office and appointed the first of them.

- 229. Beniamino Gigli in a short clip:
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xyY2QjOJHQo&feature=related>
I was never lucky myself to hear Beniamino Gigli on the operatic stage, but I did hear him a number of times in concerts at London's Royal Albert Hall after the second world war and although that obviously didn't involve acting as such, the combination of his artistry and his personality was enough to reduce even that daunting auditorium to a cosy spot where time stood still. The critics however didn't always love Gigli quite as much as the public and he was regularly hauled over the coals for his habit of sobbing while he sang. The critic of the Daily Telegraph in London, after his first concert there back in nineteen thirty-three ended a rave review with the one caveat: next time Mr Gigli must leave Mr Gi-gli in the dressing room. Criticized for that style of singing Gigli would have replied that, as the character he's portraying is about to be shot at dawn, he has every reason to feel upset about it, that was what Gigli wanted to communicate to his audience and communicating with audiences was what Gigli was all about. He would break into song anytime, anywhere.
I sing for you...
Gigli would even break into a snatch of aria while writing an autograph and this individuality of approach occasionally stayed with him during his stage work, too.

<http://it.youtube.com/watch?v=2asrRn9QBE4&feature=related>
The fat man sat on the busy street corner his white beard and red suit in rhyme his ho ho brought joy to the children for again it was Christmas time his belly would shake as he merrily laughed spreading his Christmas joy I'm Santa come sit on my knee he'd say to each little girl and boy but standing apart from the merry crowd stood a lad about seven years old with no coat to cover his bony frame he was shaking weak from the cold he had no shoes to warm his feet he looked hungry just skin and bone but with a look of peace on his humble little face he just stood there all alone when Santa saw the boy a sympathy grew and he said come here lad come here to me he covered the trembling frame with his robe as he placed the child on his knee the boy looked up into Santa's eyes with worship for the bearded man then he said my name's Billy and I love you sir why you're the grandest in all the land and I didn't mean to be no trouble Santa he went on trying hard to smile but I heard you laughing and I saw the kids and I thought I'd just watch for a while but I won't bother you with wanting nothing sir because I already know I have been bad Santa looked down at the poor little ragged boy and he said son where is your mother and dad? Well my daddy lives in prison Santa that's what mama says anyhow they say he shot mama's boyfriend he's been there a long time now and me and mama we live with Mr Brown now ma works at the bar every day Mr Brown just drinks beer and cusses a lot whenever I get in his way so I've been gone about four days now Santa I've been sleeping in cars that I find and I know that makes me a bad boy but sure have been treating me kind I've been praying for you since I've been thinking of Santa every Christmas Eve night and then the next day the kids have all the toys and I know that you made it all right and I'm so glad to see them so happy as I go walking along but my stocking is always empty that's how I know I've done wrong Mr Brown told me all about it he says I just am no good and I know he's right 'cause you never come sir and I know if I wasn't bad then you would it's OK son Santa such faith he'd not seen in a while though a tear was straining to fill his eyes he looked down at the lad with a smile just tell Santa what you'd like son anything you might have in mind I didn't know where you lived before Billy but I promise I won't miss you next time little Billy's face quickly grew brighter such luck he would never have guessed after thinking awhile he finally said well sir I might just have one request have you ever been to heaven Santa? why I bet you know God as good as you are could I just ride up to Jesus's house sir if it's not too awful far he might just let me live there a while daddy says he likes little boys and I wouldn't take up too much room sir I'd just sit in the back with the toys and I promise not to be bad Santa and I could help God do his chores and he might even let me see daddy and I wouldn't be hungry no more I'm so tired and sleepy now Santa said the child as he looked towards the skies with a sigh he relaxed against Santa's chest and peacefully closed his eyes Santa quickly felt for his the little boy's pulse someone please get a doctor he said but when the ambulance took little Billy away everyone knew he was dead the children had grown more solemn as they listened to the little boy they were no longer happy and laughing his story had stolen their joy they looked to Santa for comfort he thought for the right words to say he said now kids don't be sad for Billy 'cause he just went to heaven today he wanted to go and live with God so now everything's all right let thoughts of Billy make your hearts be kind and I'll see you all Christmas Eve night merry Christmas everybody

<http://it.youtube.com/watch?v=6sZcL1ooHK0>

Trascrizione:

The Robe from one of the greatest novels of all time. The most inspired story of love and devotion faith and spectacle that has ever come to life on the screen. Richard Burton as Marcellus the man who took whatever he wanted, Jean Simmons as Lady Diana the beauty whose fame was legend. Even pagan Rome itself gasped at their love.

"I want to be your wife whatever you believe I'd marry you if I had to share you with a thousand gods"

With Victor Mature as Demetrius, Michael Rennie as Peter the big fisherman. Here is all the sweep and spectacle the power and grandeur of a mighty era when the world of heaven was arrayed against the sword of Rome. You will see the treachery spawned by a handful of silver, the day of Golgotha, the glory that was Rome, the invincible legions, the love that defied an empire, the torture of Demetrius, intrigue and revolt, the curse of Marcellus.

"Where can I go?"

An Yiddish song (half in Yiddish half in English)

Tell me where can I go

There's no place I can see

Where to go where to go

Every door is closed for me

To the left to the right

It's the same in every light

There is nowhere to go

And it's me who should know

Won't you please understand

Now I know where to go

Where my folks proudly stay
Let me go let me go
To that precious Promised Land
No more left no more right
Lift your head and see the light
I am proud can't you see
For at last I am free
No more wandering for me

"Kathleen Mavourneen" (1837)

Words Mrs. Marion Crawford

Music by Frederick Nicholls Crouch, 1808-1896

1.

Kathleen mavourneen! the gray dawn is breaking,
The horn of the hunter is heard on the hill,
The lark from her light wing the bright dew is shaking,
Kathleen mavourneen, what slumbering still?

[CHORUS]

Oh! hast thou forgotten how soon we must sever?
Oh! hast thou forgotten this day we must part,
It may be for years, and it may be forever,
Oh! why art thou silent thou voice of my heart?
It may be for years, and it may be forever,
Then why art thou silent Kathleen mavourneen?

2.

Kathleen mavourneen, awake from thy slumbers,
The blue mountains glow in the sun's golden light,
Ah! where is the spell that once hung on thy numbers,
Arise in thy beauty, Thou star of my night,
Arise in thy beauty, Thou star of my night.

[CHORUS]

Mavourneen, mavourneen, my sad tears are falling,
To think that from Erin and thee I must part,
It may be for years, and it may be forever,
Then why art thou silent, thou voice of my heart?
It may be for years, and it may be forever,
Then why art thou silent, thou voice of my heart?

* What is CLIL?

CLIL stands for Content and Language Integrated Learning. In CLIL, teachers and learners of content subjects (e.g. geography, history, art and design) use a foreign or second language as the medium of communication and instruction. CLIL is widely seen as an excellent means of learning a language, and of introducing international aspects into the teaching of content subjects.

In the Netherlands CLIL is also known as TTO: Twee Talig Onderwijs. At present there are over 25 TTO secondary schools in the Netherlands and the number is growing steadily. More and more parents want their children to learn secondary school subjects in another language. In the Dutch setting this is normally English.

CLIL is also used in higher education, especially in business studies programmes with a strong international element. The University of Utrecht (IVLOS) has recently started an English-medium one-year postgraduate teacher-training programme in English (grade one), using CLIL. The Amsterdam Faculty of Education is now introducing English-medium elements in its four-year teacher training programmes (grade two).

The European Union aims has as an aim that its citizens know three of the community languages and supports CLIL as one of the ways of reaching this goal. In the Netherlands, the European Platform (www.europeesplatform.nl) has a coordinating role for CLIL and TTO.

- I George Washington do solemnly swear
- That I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States
- ... faithfully execute the office of President of the United states
- And will to the best of my ability
- ... to the best of my ability
- Preserve, protect and defend
- Preserve protect and defend
- The Constitution of the United States
- ... Constitution of the United States, so help me God
- It is done, God bless George Washington, President of the United States
- Fine, fine

(Wikipedia)The president's term of office begins at noon on January 20 of the year following the election. This date, known as Inauguration Day, marks the beginning of the president's and vice president's four-year terms. Before assuming office, the president-elect is constitutionally required to take the presidential oath:

“ I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States.^[7] ”

Although it is not required, presidents have traditionally used a Bible to take oath of office ...

Although no law requires that the oath of office be administered by someone, new presidents are traditionally sworn-in by the Chief Justice of the United States. Washington was sworn-in by Chancellor of New York Robert Livingston, there being no federal judges before Washington took office and appointed the first of them.
